Down Among the Dead Men.

Beneath the Rolling Waves—Life Under Water—Tragedies on the Bottom of the Sea—How the Fishes Look at a Diver—The Story of a Detroit Diver.

[From the Detroit Advertiser and Tribune.]

It is a strange business, this diving. The danger fascinates some, but the peril is never for a moment lost sight of. I put on the helmet for the first time more than ten years ago, and yet I never resume it without a feeling that it may be the last time I shall ever go down. Of course one has more confidence after a while, but there is something in being shut up in an armor, weighed down with a hundred pounds, and knowing that a little leak in your life pipe is your death, that no diver can ever get rid of. And I do not know that I would care to banish the feeling, for the sight of the clear, blue sky, the genial sun, and the face of a fellow man, after long hours among the fishes, makes you feel like one who has suddenly been drawn away from the grasp of death. I have had some narrow escapes while pursuing my strange profession; every diver has, or has been unusually lucky to escape them.

I think the most dangerous place I ever got into was going down to examine the propeller Comet, sunk off Toledo. In working about her bottom, I got my air pipe coiled over a large sliver from the stoven hole, and could not reach it with my hands. Every time I sprang up to remove the hose my tender would give me the "slack" of line, thus letting me fall back again. He did not understand his duties, and did not know what my signals on the life-line meant. It was two hours and a half before I was relieved, and there wasn't a moment that I was not looking to see the hose cut by the ragged wood. It's a strange feeling you have down there. You go walking over a vessel, chambering up her sides, peering here and there, and the feeling that you are alone makes you nervous and uneasy.

Sometimes a vessel sinks down so fairly that she stands upon her bottom as trim and as neat as if she rode on the surface.—Then you can go down into the cabin, up the shrouds, walk all over her, just as easily as a sailor could if she were still dashing away before the breeze. Only it seems so quiet, so tomblike; there are no waves down there—only a swaying back and forth of the waters, and a see-sawing of the ship. You hear nothing from above. The great fishes will come swimming about, rubbing their nose against your glass, and staring with a wondering look into your eyes. The very stillness sometimes gives a chill. You hear just a moaning, waiting sound, like the last notes of an organ, and you can not help but think of dead men floating over and around you.

I have been down especially to rescue the bodies of those drowned. About four years ago the propellor Buckeye, belonging to the Northern Transportation Company, went down in the river St. Lawrence, in seventy-eight feet of water, and it was known that a mother and child were asleep in their stateroom at the time of her sinking. The father begged of me and offered me a good deal of money to take out the corpses, and though I dreaded the work, I at last consented. I had been all over the wreck two or three times and knew just where the stateroom was. The door was fast locked, and I waited a good while before bursting it open.

Of course, a dead person couldn't harm you, but even in broad day, on shore, and with people around you, don't you know that the sight and presence of a dead person brings up solemn thoughts and nervous feelings? I knew how they would look, now they were floating around in the room, and if the father hadn't been looking so wretched above, there was no money to tempt me in there. But, at last, I got a crowbar from forwards, and, not letting myself think, gave the light door a blow that stove it in. The water came rushing out, the vessel just then lurched over toward my side, and out they came, the women first, her eyes wide open and hair trailing behind, and in her left hand she held the hand of the child. I knew how they would look, but I screamed out and jumped back. Her face was fearfully distorted, showing how hard death had been made, and the eyes looked through the green waters at me in a way that made my flesh creep. The child had died easily, its little white face giving out no sign of terror.

It was a good while before I fastened the line to them and gave the signal to haul up, and I felt so uneasy that I was not long in following. This is one of the drawbacks to any curiosity a diver might otherwise have. I never go down the hatchway or cabin steps without thinking of a dead man floating about there. When the Lac la Belle sunk on St. Clair flats, the engineer was caught in the rushing waters, and no trace was ever found of his body. His wife came to me, hearing that I was to go down to the wreck, and asked me to find the body, if possible. I remembered this when I went groping though the engine-room in momentary expectation of encountering the body. I looked so long without finding it that I got nervous, and had started for the ladder to go up, when I felt something strike my helmet and give way, and a chill went dancing over me as I thought the dead body was at hand. But, on reaching up, I found that I had run against the fire-hose, the end of which was hanging down, and what I so dreaded was still hidden beyond my sight.

A diver does not like to go down more than a hundred and twenty feet; and that depth the pressure is painful, and there is danger of internal injury. I can stay down for five or six hours at a time, at a hundred and fifteen or twenty feet, and do a good deal of hard work. In the waters of Lake Huron, the diver can see thirty or forty feet away, but the other lakes will screen a vessel not ten feet from you.

Up here you seldom think of accident or death, but a hundred feet of water washing over your head would set you to thinking. A little stoppage of the air pump, a leak in your hose, a careless action on the part of your tender, and the weight of a mountain would press the life out of you before you could make a move. And you may "foul" your pipe or line yourself, and in your haste bring on what you dread. I often got my hose around a stair or rail, and though I am not called cowardly, and generally release it without much trouble, the bare idea of what a slender thing holds back the clutch of death off my throat, makes a cold sweat start from every pore. The child had died easily, its little white face giving out no sign of terror.

UNIVERSAL CLOTHES WRINGER.

Improved with ROWELL'S PATENT DOUBLE COGWHEELS, and the PATENT STOP, are now unquestionably far superior to any apparatus for washing clothes ever invented, and will save their cost twice a year, by saving labor and clothes.

Those who have used them give testimony as follows:

"We like our machine much; could not be persuaded to do without it, and with the aid of Doty, we feel that we are masters of the position."—Rev. L. Scott, Bishop M. E. Church.

"In the laundry of my house there is a perpetual thanksgiving on Mondays for the invention."—Rev. Theodore L. Cuyler.

"Every week has given it a stronger hold upon the affections of the inmates of the laundry."—N. Y. Observer.

"Friend Doty—Your last improvement of your Washing Machine is a complete success. I assure you 'our machine,' after a year's use, is thought more of to-day than ever, and would not be parted with under any circumstances."—Solon Robinson.

"Your Washing Machine has been in daily use in our laundry and the housekeeper expresses herself as highly pleased with it. It certainly accomplishes a greater amount of work, with less labor, and does not wear the clothes near so much as the old fashioned wash-board. By using it, one laundress is dispensed with."—Wm. M. P. Rowand, Superintendent of Infant Department of St. Catherine's Nursery, N. Y. City.

PRICES.—A Fair Offer.

Send the retail price Washer $14, Extra Wringer $9, and we will forward either or both machines, free of freight, to places where no one is selling it, and so sure are we they will be liked, that we agree to refund the money if at any time wishes to return the machines, free of freight, after a month's trial, according to directions.

No husband, father or brother should permit the drudgery of washing with the hands, fifty-two days in the year, when it can be done better, more expeditiously, with less labor, and no injury to the garments, by a Doty Clothes Washer, and a Universal Wringer.

Canvassers with exclusive right of sale make money fast selling them.

Sold by dealers generally, to whom liberal discounts are made.

THE SENTINEL.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 16, 1869.

OUR EDUCATIONAL PROSPECTS.

We have heretofore said that there is no subject of greater concern to the people than the education of the children and youth of the State. This is a matter, indeed, of the very first importance, and the one that comes nearest to every parent who desires to give hope and promise to his children and to the world. Moral and intellectual darkness must inevitable come, if the education of the youthful mind is neglected, and a consequent political degeneracy, resulting in bad government, administered only in the interest of crime and anarchy.

While popular education is thus a matter of the deepest moment, it is not a little remarkable that those who administer our present State government, have almost entirely neglected it. The authorities have displayed a zeal and energy in increasing the State debt to the enormous sum of forty millions of dollars, in the pretended interest of internal improvements, for the alleged purpose of developing the material interests of the State. To this pretended end they have devoted millions of dollars, but, strange to say, they have done nothing for the education of the people, white or black. This is passing strange, is it not? What are the material interests of the State worth, if the people are to grow up in intellectual darkness? And, indeed, how long will there be need of Railroads and other appliances incident only to enlightened civilization, when the great popular mind has retrograded into semi-barbarism? All these consequences will certainly and naturally follow a criminal neglect of education.

We know that millions of dollars of the public credit have been misapplied and prostituted for infamous purposes; this is not even denied; yet even as a matter of party policy no part of these immense sums is devoted to a practical school system, nor does it reasonably appear that there is any purpose to do so. On the contrary, all the indications go to show that there is a settled purpose to prostitute even the matter of public education to the interest of a hateful and despised faction, not fit to be called political; and a gigantic "Ring," a modern invention, through and by means of which, villains plunder and rob the body politic.

The authorities of the State, such as they are, pretend that, by-and-by, they will give the State a Common School system. But their acts contradict, in the most unmistakable terms, their professions. For, at the head of the proposed system is a man wholly unfit in every point of view; a man extremely odious; of no sort of experience, and a stranger to the people. Now, no party or authority, desiring to start a system and carry it into practical execution, would put such a man in such a position.

The same may be said of the University of the State; incapable, obscure and odious men are placed there, and the result is, nobody will go. The people of the State, white and colored, are ashamed of the University. There are the would be President and Professors—yes, there they are, and that is all; except that they are careful to draw from the State the salaries that they occupy the places in order to receive. As for Common Schools, there is not one in the State.

It is said, however, that there is a purpose to have them, and for that purpose an act has been passed by the Legislature. But, again, the indications show that this School act is to be prostituted to shameful and criminal gain for the parties interested in the great schemes of fraud set on foot by those in power.

There are a few of the party that have backed out in reference to this matter.—The school act gives the Board of Education power to prescribe the course of education and the school books to be used.—It is said that this clause of the act was stricken out by a large vote, but, nevertheless, by some hook or crook, it is in it now. This Board is composed of the heads of Departments, including the Governor and Lieut. Governor. It met to consider the subject of school books; intelligent and responsible agents of great publishing houses were present to offer their books for adoption.—Sound policy would dictate that most, if not all, these great, leading publishing houses should be enlisted in a school system, especially if they presented desirable terms and good books. It is admitted that most of them offered suitable books; good books, and, some of them very liberal and desirable terms; but these books and terms, to the utter astonishment of outsiders, were rejected. This matter of Education belongs mainly to the Department of the Superintendent of Education, occupied by Mr. Ashley; the Governor and Board let him have his own way about the books. We have seen what kind of a man he is, and he has done what might be expected of him. Through his influence the Board, (and what is the use to have a Board, if he rules?)—the Board selected almost exclusively the books published by A. S. Barnes & Co. These books are such as are used in New England, and embody such political and religious ideas as suit the taste and fancy of Mr. Ashley. Besides nearly all of them are of a low standard of merit, and they cost more money, than books of confessedly greater merit, published by other leading houses. For example, the great publishing house of D. Appleton & Co. offered Arithmetics of standard merit, at such price as that, in buying a hundred thousand of them, the State would save twenty two thousand dollars. There was just as much difference in other books, and in Geographies much greater. Besides this the Appletons offered to exchange a new Arithmetic for each old Davies' Arithmetic that any child in the State might have, free of charge. Yet these books are rejected, and the books of A. S. Barnes & Co. are taken. The State, and hence the people, lose by this selection, tens of thousands of dollars. The books selected are objectionable because they are, in a measure, partizan in their character; the people of the State are unacquainted with them, and they cost much more than those other books which are better in point of educational merit.

We shall revert to this subject again, because we believe the character of the books placed in the hands of our children is a matter of vital importance, outside of any money consideration.

GONE, BREATHING FURY—THE PUBLIC TREASURER, ACCOMPANIED BY THE GOVERNOR AND GEN. LITTLEFIELD, LEFT THIS MORNING FOR NEW YORK.

The Treasurer waxed wrath at reading this morning's SENTINEL. We have re-read our article to see if there was any just cause for his anger, and we pronounce that there was not. Would that Littlefield had taken more of his accomplices with him.

We tell Littlefield that the time will come when his plots, plans and conspiracies to prey upon the exhausted Treasury of the State will be fully known and exposed to the whole people of the State.

Littlefield has been presented by the Grand Jury of Wake, for attempting to bribe the Legislature with money and whiskey.

In five minutes after the presentment, greasy Sam Watts, the Judge, adjourned Court on Thursday of the term, before the Solicitor, Gen. Cox, could draw up a bill.

After this presentment, Judge Settle, of bridge notoriety, walks up Fayetteville street arm and arm with Littlefield. To-day Littlefield is the jovial, congenial, travelling companion of Governor Holden and Treasury Jenkins.

To-day old North Carolina bonds are 55; new 47½. Next week, as the Governor and Treasurer and Littlefield, walk up and down in Wall Street and go in and out at Suters' & Co., bonds will go up and down, in and out. Littlefield has been buying, it is supposed, at these low figures. Next week, or within ten days, it is supposed he will sell.

The personal appearance of the Governor and Treasurer in Wall Street, with the assurance they will give, will make our bonds go up. It is thought, by some, that the purpose of the Governor's visit is to make the bonds go up, and Littlefield, through Suter & Co., will sell.

Watch your corks, gentlemen, the eyes of the public are upon you. We say our bonds will go up in a few days to the great gain of Littlefield, Suter & Co.

THAT QUESTION.

The Standard propoundeth a certain question—he says he has propounded it three times before; which is as near correctness as the Standard usually cometh, as it has been propounded but three times in all. On the day after the second propoundation, the "editor in charge" at the time, answered the question fully, in a leading editorial in the SENTINEL. Let the propounder of the momentous "question" turn back to the SENTINEL of that day (he keeps a file) and read the article under the title "Let us make the best and most of the situation," and if he don't find an answer we'll cite him to the paragraph.

On this subject, merely as by-play, for we know the Standard has its hands full just now, we would like to ask that paper if Governor Holden endorses its platform of "universal suffrage—universal amnesty—the removal of all political disabilities and abrogation of all test oaths?" An early answer is solicited by, yours, respectfully.

A QUEER THING TO BOAST OF.

The Standard says we try to mislead the people when we give them the amount of appropriations made by the Legislature, and proceeds to give parallel columns of figures to show that in the list of appropriations we gave, $13,950,000 have been declared unconstitutional! Well what is there in that to exult over? We didn't say the appropriations were constitutional—we only said the Legislature made appropriations to the amount of $26,000,000, and upwards, and the Standard felicitates itself over the fact that half of these appropriations were unconstitutional! Suppose they were; your Radical Legislature made them, with the assistance of M. S. Littlefield's Legislative grogshop, and you backed it all up at the time; and the people would have been saddled with the whole of it, if injunctions had not been sued out to prevent it. And yet you charge the SENTINEL with endeavoring to mislead the people when it tells them the amount of appropriations made by the Radical Legislature, because, as you say, half of the appropriations are unconstitutional! Aren't you ashamed of yourself?

For the Sentinel.

THE "RING" ON THE WESTERN N. C. RAILROAD, AGAIN.

If the magnates of this Road think that we are done with them, they are much mistaken. J. J. Mott, the President, in his recent report to the Stockholders (which I have before me) says: "It is not the size of the debt which makes our bonds so low in the market. North Carolina can pay it, and she will. The continual murmuring of the dissatisfied demagogues against those in authority here, against all management, good and bad, has much to do with it. Slanderous reports are circulated everywhere. They reach the ears of Wall Street," &c., &c.

This is tolerably rich on the part of J. J. Mott, President! The proposition that the amount of a man's debts don't affect his credit will surely "reach the ears of Wall Street," and give Wall Street some slight idea of the ears of Dr. J. J. Mott! It is the very essence of scalawag philosophy! The size of the debt don't matter; surely not! What then is the matter? Why, "the dissatisfied demagogue" murmurs! Is it possible? Who is that "demagogue" who is behaving so shabbily? I'll tell you who he is; he is the taxpayer. The concern of J. J. Mott, with the exception of the tax on salaries, pays nothing or next to nothing, and the case stands thus: Old Rip has real property valued in 1860 at one hundred millions—his debt is seventeen millions; he falls into the hands of J. J. Mott, the negroes, the carpet baggers and the scalawags, who pay little or no taxes themselves, and who raise his debt in less than twelve months to 40 millions; take his bonds and hawk them through the market for about 30 cents on the dollar; vote themselves increased salaries, stuff their pockets and those of all their friends, and have a good time generally. If Old Rip submits quietly to see himself swallowed by this hungry crew, he is all right; but if he grumbles and remonstrates, J. J. Mott, President says he is a "dissatisfied demagogue;" he circulates "slanderous reports," and they "reach the ears of Wall Street!" Oh! indeed; does anything else reach that street Doctor? Don't you suppose that Wall Street knows something of the irresponsible crew that are ruining the State? Don't you suppose it has heard of the 30 millions appropriated for Railroads and the character of the men who are handling our bonds? Don't you suppose that a rumor has reached that street of the Chatham Railroad operations of one of M. S. Littlefield, of A. J. Jones, of the Penitentiary swindle, of Ashley and the swamp lands, of the cow leather boots crowd which is fed by the Common School Fund at the University, of the "special tax" bonds, and of Powell's Lime Kiln Road, and of the recent back swindle? Don't you suppose, Doctor, that Wall Street is perfectly aware that nine-tenths of the proper citizens of this State who own property and pay the taxes, scorn Littlefield's Legislature and all its works? Don't you know that Wall Street knows that no man in North Carolina lays up these bonds as a permanent investment; that no people on earth can stand such corruption; such reckless extravagance; and that, if the public stomach was of the strength and intensity of ninety seven hound dogs consolidated, it would be obliged to flag up this dose?

There are, perhaps, some other matters, however, that Wall Street may not have heard of, but of which it is important that the "dissatisfied demagogues," or tax payers, should hear all about; and you are the man to furnish the information. And now to the points:

1st. Col. Tate, the Financial Agent, in his report, gives an account of the bonds he received, and what he did with them. How many did you receive from the Treasurer; what did you do with them, and why ain't they mentioned in your report?

2nd. How much did you pay toward a certain suit in the Supreme Court, and by what authority did you pay it?

3rd. Are you part owner of the Lime Beds, for which the $80,000 is appropriated, and what other Directors are interested in the same property?

4th. Why did you have that Branch Road let to contract to Smith in such haste, and without advertisement in the usual way?

5th. Did you, or any one for you, promise to settle or compromise the claim of Fisher's administrators against the Road, for over $100,000, (which has been twice investigated and rejected) in order to get that stock to vote for you in the late Stockholder's meeting?

6th. Did you, or any one for you, promise to pay Hunt extra for their deep cut at Leonard's, in order to get their stock?

7th. Did you, or any one for you, your Chief Engineer for instance, make any threats or promises to John Malone, on the Mountain section, in order to get his stock; and did you not make a solemn promise when you got it, that it should be voted for Vance, Merrimon and McDowell?

8th. What did you take Judge Henry to New York for, and who paid his expenses?

A fair and square answer to these questions is much desired by the dissatisfied demagogues of this section.

JAMES.

The New York Commercial, Republican has a clear perception of the necessities of its party, and of the corruption and extravagance that have heretofore marked its course. It says:

"The Republican party must put an end to extravagance, or make up its minds to be overthrown at the polls. The people are heartily sick and disgusted with the profligacy and extravagance on every hand, and if the party in power cannot effect a change they will call upon some other political organization to undertake the task. Sweeping reforms have got to be inaugurated, and that right speedily, in every department, if the Republican party hopes to maintain its ascendency. Neither will the dismissal of department clerks, the abolishing of an office here and there, the reduction of salaries, and the decreasing of the hours of labor, appease the demands of the people. Economy and retrenchment must be emblazoned on the Republican banners, and every one in Government employ made to feel and understand that they have got to earn their money, and war on wasteful expenditures. The people demand that every sinecure berth be abolished; that every political hanger on, who has run his arm into the public treasury, be kicked out into the cold.

Gov. Walker, of Virginia, telegraphs to Gen. Buttlerfield:

Have just been informed of your effort in behalf of Gen. Rawlins' family. As a personal friend of the late Secretary, I desire to contribute $500.

GILBERT C. WALKER.

Col. Flournoy, Gen. Blow, and Messrs. Hale and Read, of the directory of the Norfolk and Great Western railroad company, have been appointed a committee to confer with the authorities of the Memphis, El Paso and Pacific railroad company, on the basis of a consolidation and future cooperation. THE UNIVERSITY AND THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS.—(No. 3.)

Any slight inaccuracy in the following statement will not materially affect the argument. Put the services of the thoroughly educated man at $1,500 per annum, and of the uneducated, or day laborer, at $250. The value to the State, in dollars and cents, of the educated man exceeds that of the uneducated by $1,250 per annum. The education of one hundred men, so thoroughly as to enable them to earn upon an average $1,500, increases the annual monetary interest of the State $125,000. Add to this the superior intelligence, and the moral power and worth of such a class of citizens, and we have some conception of the profit accruing to the State from the liberal education of its young men.

There is no money more freely paid, and none more judiciously invested than that which is expended for purposes of education. Each man who makes his home in Wake County, earning and receiving a salary, or enjoying an income of $1,500, adds so much to the pecuniary interest of the county. When such person takes the place of the uneducated, the exchange is worth to the county $1,250 annually. Introduce one hundred educated, enterprising men into the city of Raleigh, and their value is at once felt. During the present year, one thousand day laborers in Wake, receiving $250 each, become the means of circulating $250,000. The same number of educated men, receiving $1,500 each, would have circulated $1,500,000; or more money by one and a quarter millions of dollars. That is, one thousand educated men are worth to their county yearly one and a quarter million of dollars more than the same number of uneducated day laborers. Is it surprising that money should be comparatively scarce in that State, where a considerable proportion of the people are uneducated? To what section of our country do we look for wealth—its banks and brokers, and moneyed men? Why the great disparity in the thrift and enterprise of sister States? The Public Schools and Colleges, and Universities, Cornell and Harvard and Yale, of New York and the New England States, are annually educating their thousands. Education is capital, its earnings are the income.

One who receives a salary of $1,500 is as rich, without stock or bonds or land, as another who enjoys an income from $25,000 at 6 per cent. He is richer, for he has not only as many dollars, but the additional wealth of intelligence. Where is the liberally educated man who would consent to exchange his education for even twice twenty five thousand dollars? Were it not better then that the father give his five sons a thorough education, though it cost him all his hard earned, than bequeath them an estate of one hundred thousand dollars? He has thus, not only left them an ample support, but has fitted them for positions of usefulness and honor, for rank in society, for a successful competition with all around them, for distinction among men. The heritage of $25,000 in houses or notes or stock, may disappear in the fluctuations of business, by the ravages of war, or under the torch of the incendiary. Lands and notes and stock are taxable—from all such the capital of an education is exempt. The liberal education of children is a parental duty—it is true State policy to provide the means. The wealth of nations is not told by doubloons and eagles and dollars, but it is found in the gems of thought, the jewels of mind, and the inestimable treasures of patriotism and virtue and religion, that shine out and adorn the character of the people. Our well trained and properly educated young men must be the pride of our country, the pillars upon which securely repose our liberties, the safeguards of the Republic.

DEATH OF THE HON. JOHN BELL.—The death of Jno. Bell, of Tennessee, took place at his residence, at Cumberland Iron Works, in that State, on the 10th inst. Mr. Bell was born at Nashville, February 15, 1797. Graduating at a Western College, he studied law and in 1817 he was elected to the State Senate. In 1826 he was elected to Congress as an Adams candidate, but became an admirer of Calhoun, and, after several vacillations of policy took ground as a whig, and as such was selected speaker of the House of Representatives in 1832. In 1841 he was appointed Secretary of War by President Harrison, but resigned immediately after the latter's death, being only one month in office. After a period of retirement he was elected United States Senator in 1847, and was reinstated in 1853. In 1860 he was nominated by a convention in Baltimore, as a fourth candidate for the Presidency, with Edward Everett as the candidate for the Vice Presidency, carrying only three States—Virginia, Kentucky and Tennessee. The Bell-Everett ticket, as it was called, represented the Southern Unionists, and what was left of the old whigs and know nothings of the North. It was a party of compromise—an effort on the part of well-meaning men to postpone the evil days of civil war. Its platform was, "The Union, the Constitution and the enforcement of the Laws."

During the late war Mr. Bell's sympathies were with the South, not because he did not love the Union, but because he detested those extreme republicans of the North who, as he thought, precipitated the war. He took no active part, however, and remained in obscurity ever since. Personally he was an amiable gentleman.—Baltimore Sun.

GLASS SPECTACLES,

Superior to any other in use—constructed in accordance with the science and philosophy of nature, in the peculiar form of

A CONCAVE CONVEX ELLIPSIS,

Admirably adapted to the organs of sight, and perfectly natural to the eye, affording altogether the best artificial help to the human vision ever invented. Used only by

MORRIS BERNHARDT,

SPECTACLE & OPTICAL MANUFACTURER.

THE ADVANTAGES of these Spectacles over all others are:

1. They can be worn with perfect ease for any length of time at one sitting, giving astonishing clearness of vision, by candle or any other artificial light, comfort to the spectacle-wearer hitherto unknown.

2. How to select Glasses. It requires professional guidance even when a good artisite is offered. Dr. Bernhardt not only has the best Glasses that can be found in the market, but carefully examines the eyes of his patients, and gives indispensable advice as to the proper selection of them.

3. When the eyes ache or pain through the action of a bright light, such as is reflected from the snow, sunny weather, white paper, and in reading, writing or sewing, or vivid colored bodies; these lenses, by softening the rays, effect a most agreeable sensation and give great relief.

4. These spectacles are scientifically adjusted to every case of defective sight with unerring accuracy, whether arising from age, strain, over work, or premature decay, by Dr Bernhardt on a new and exact principle, entirely his own, which has seldom failed to be correct.

5. After several years of public practice, adjusting spectacles to patients under every aspect of defective vision, as well as experience in an extensive, long established business in his Optical Stores, both here and in Europe, Dr. Bernhardt considers it a sufficient guarantee of his ability to supply such glasses as are best calculated for the assistance of imperfect sight.

6. M. Bernhardt, to signalize himself from the host of pretenders in his profession, with pride submits for inspection, copies of testimonials he has received from medical gentlemen of the most unquestionable respectability and talent in America; also a number of certificates from well known gentlemen of distinction who have used his spectacles—the originals of all which he will be happy to show to those who may request it. The use of any of the following names or certificates hereunto affixed, without an actual possession of the same, would be a forgery, a capital offence, punishable by State imprisonment.

Testimony of Recommendations from Medical Gentlemen, Professors of the highest Opthalmic talent in Raleigh, N. C., and in the Union

Raleigh, Aug 24, 1869.

I have carefully examined Prof. Bernhardt's Spectacles, and take great pleasure in recommending him to those who, having defective vision, can be made to see more clearly and distinctly by the use of glasses. He has wonderful skill in this respect. The pair he has supplied me with are of Brazilian Pebble, of most superior quality and excellent finish. They enable me to see how to read, or write, at the ordinary focal distance, as clearly and distinctly as I did twenty years ago. I very cheerfully bear testimony both to the Professor's skill and to the wonderful properties of his glasses.

CHAS. E. JOHNSON, M. D.

Raleigh, N. C., Aug. 24, 1869.

I take great pleasure in saying that the Glasses I have obtained (and am now using) from Dr M. Bernhart are to me a source of greater comfort than any I have previously used; my own experience fully sustaining the testimonials of excellence and commendation which he has received from gentlemen of science, and high character, in various parts of our country.

WM. G. HILL, M. D.

Raleigh, N. C., Aug 24, 1869.

I take pleasure in stating that I have examined the glasses of M. Bernhardt, Oculist and Optician, and think they are of the best material, and constructed on scientific principles. I would advise those in need of glasses to call on him.

Very respectfully
F. J. HAYWOOD, M. D.

Raleigh, Aug. 24, 1869.

Doctor Bernhardt called at my house and exhibited to me his fine assortment of Australian Crystal Glasses, which are of a very superior quality and workmanship. I take pleasure in saying that the glasses I have obtained from Professor Bernhardt are to me a source of greater comfort than any I have previously worn and cheerfully commend them to those who may be in need of glasses.

W. H. McKEE, M. D.

Raleigh, Aug 25, 1869.

After an attentive examination of the various glasses in the possession of Dr. M. Bernhardt, accompanied with his explanation of his mode of preparing and adjusting them, it is with great pleasure I state my belief of his great skill, and of the benefit which those needing glasses must derive from his assistance.

R. S. MASON, D. D.,
Pastor Prot. Episcopal Church.

Raleigh, Aug 25, 1869.

Dr. M. Bernhardt, Oculist and Optician, has fitted me with a pair of Spectacles superior to any article of the kind I ever had before. The material is Australian Crystal, the quality of which renders vision very clear and distinct, and enables me to read and write with as much ease as I did ten or twelve years ago. His assortment of glasses is most complete and the finish apparently perfect. I take great pleasure in recommending him to all who need their sight improved.

DRURY LACY, D. D.,
Late Pres't. of Davidson College, N. C.

Raleigh, Aug. 26, 1869.

It gives me pleasure to bear witness to the extraordinary value and excellence of the glasses prepared and furnished by Prof. Bernhardt. To those who need artificial aid for their vision he will be of the highest service.

J. M. ATKINSON,
Pastor of the Presbyterian Church.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
Raleigh, March 29, 1866.

I have examined a large number of the glasses of Prof. M. Bernhardt, and with pleasure certify to their superior excellence. I wear a pair of them and see as perfectly as I could in my youth. They are the best I ever used, and I therefore heartily recommend him to the patronage of the public.

JONATHAN WORTH,
Governor of North Carolina.

State of South Carolina,
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
Columbia, June 19th, 1866.

SIR: I have made a full and satisfactory test of the Spectacles procured from you, and I have the pleasure to say that the glasses are better adapted to my eyes than any I have ever used. The facility with which you fitted the glasses to my eyes, furnished me conclusive evidence of your scientific skill in optics and your thorough experience as an Oculist.

Your attainments in your profession entitle you to the confidence, patronage and gratitude of the public. I have the honor to be,

Very respectfully yours,
JAMES L. ORR,
Governor of South Carolina.

Prof. MORRIS BERNHARDT, Charleston, S. C.

Wilmington, March 31, 1866.

I have examined a number of Professor Bernhardt's Glasses and am now using a pair of them, and take pleasure in testifying that they enable me to see better than any others that I have used, while in his collection there seem to be some adapted to remedy any kind of defect in vision.

THOMAS ATKINSON,
Bishop of North Carolina.

Nashville, April 27, 1867.

The difference between Dr Bernhardt and most Opticians is, according to my observation, that while they pretend to more than they know, he knows more of his business than he professes.

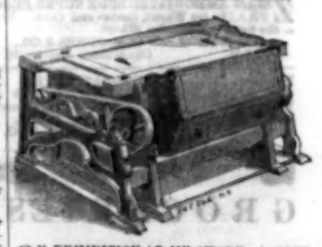
GULLETT'S COTTON GIN.



ON EXHIBITION AT MY STORE, A "GULLETT'S STEEL BRUSH GIN."

The Gin is of a very superior style of workmanship, gins more Cotton in a given time than any Gin of the same number of saws; picks the seed cleaner; leaves no motes or nap; does not waste the lint by throwing it over the walls of the room where it is being ginned; does not cut the lint, but brings it out in beautiful bats.

Planters desiring Gins would do well to buy one of Gullett's, as each one is guaranteed, and if it does not have the advantages over other Gins, named in this advertisement, after fair trial, it will be no sale.

The "Gullett Gin" has been awarded the Premium at the several STATE FAIRS of Louisiana, Alabama and Mississippi.

I am Agent for its sale and would be pleased to fill orders.

NEW GOODS.—We refer the reader to the new advertisements of Messrs. W. H. & R. S. Tucker & Co., in to-day's issue. We took a look through their stock yesterday, and can truly say that a more complete, attractive or a larger stock of Dry and Fancy Goods, Hats, Boots and Shoes, we have never seen in Raleigh. We are not sufficiently versed in the nomenclature of English, French, German and American Fancy Goods and Fabrics, to enter into a technical account of the varied stock, even if space would allow. But we will say this, it must be quite a singular fancy, or a horribly antiquated taste, that could not be suited in the large and beautiful stock which these indefatigable merchants are opening out for the accommodation of their customers and the public.

Of course their establishment will be thronged daily by the beauty and fashion of the city and country, for months to come. The tide is already setting in.

COTTON GIN.—Our old friend Towles, Auctioneer and Commission Merchant, Wilmington Street, advertisers a Georgia Cotton Gin, which will be sold cheap; will also furnish gins at manufacturers prices. Read his card.

A FACT OR TWO.—Baltimore is emphatically a Southern city, and J. G. McPheeters & Co., is a North Carolina House, doing business there, at No. 6, South Holliday Street. They attend to the sale of Cotton and other produce, and purchase on Commission Goods, fertilizers and plantation supplies, and will make liberal advances on consignments. See their advertisement in another column.

DOUGLAS BELL, Fayetteville street, announces to consumers of sugar, (and who don't consume the article, more or less?) a large lot of that article, of the different brands, which he is selling at very low figures.

See notice of Mule stolen. It is thought the rogue brought him to Wake county.

THE new School-room, in connection with the Roman Catholic Church of this City, is now ready, and Father McNamara offers the people of Raleigh the advantages of a fine education for their children—free of charge.

M. E. CHURCH TO NIGHT.—Rev. N. F. Reid, D. D., will preach at the M. E. Church to-night, on the subject of religious training in the Sabbath School. Dr. Reid stands in the front rank of pulpit orators in North Carolina, and doubtless there will be a dense crowd to hear him on this occasion.

The S. S. Convention of the M. E. Church, South, meets this morning at 10 o'clock, for the purpose of organizing, and attending, perhaps, to some preliminary business. A considerable number of delegates had arrived yesterday, (Wednesday) evening, and many others, no doubt will arrive on the trains to-day.

TRESPASS.—Isaac Moore, colored, was up before Esquire Adams yesterday, charged by John B. Sugg, for the State, with badly injuring a feminine hog belonging to the said Sugg. Chas. Busbee, Esq., appeared for the prosecution and Geo. W. Snow, Esq., for the defense. Several witnesses were examined whose testimony on the case made the impression on the mind of His Worship, confirmed by argument of counsel, that Isaac was guilty, as charged, to the amount of $2 and costs, for which sentence was accordingly rendered.

NORTH CAROLINIAN.—We publish, to-day, another communication from "A North Carolinian," on the subject of "The University and the Common Schools," which we are bound to pronounce puerile. For instance, we ask "North Carolinian" to show, if he can, how the "educated man" who, he says, is intrinsically worth $1,500 a year, could make the money in the corn field and cotton patch? We must have men to make bread, you know. Now, suppose every man in North Carolina, black and white, was educated to the highest possible reach of the human intellect, would each be actually worth $1,500 a year? and if so, how?

PERSONAL.—M. J. McSween, Esq., editor of the Fayetteville Eagle, sojourning at the Yarboro' House, and has shown his handsome phiz in our sanctum several times.

CHEAP FOOD.—Dr. Wm. over on the East side, South, says he can feed on music, and grow fat on it. No doubt of it, he has been feasting on the melodious notes of a very poor "organ" for about ten days, and has a great big portly leg, like a sheep, already.

N. C. AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY.—A meeting of the Executive Committee of the North Carolina Agricultural Society, will be held this (Thursday) morning at 10 o'clock, at the office of the Society.

Oliver Stevens, colored, was convicted in Goldsborough on Tuesday, of attempt to commit a rape on a young white girl, some months ago, and sentenced by Judge Thomas to ten years in the Penitentiary.

A Section Master found a still laid on the track of the A. & N. C. Railroad, 3 miles below Newbern on Tuesday evening, evidently put there to throw the passenger train from the track.

Benj. Hill, colored, charged with larceny, was arrested by Miles Howard colored, a short distance up the river from Wilmington, on Tuesday, but on his way to town with his prisoner, he was beset by two negroes and Betsy was released.

EPISCOPAL CHARITY SCHOOL.—It may not be generally known that there is a Charity School, under the charge of the Episcopal Church in this City. There about 60 or 70 scholars. Several ladies of the parish occasionally assist the Principal. The plan adopted for raising funds is simple and effectual, viz: Certain members of the Church bind themselves to pay the tuition of one or more pupils, by which means an amount sufficient to pay the teacher, and provide for contingent expenses, is raised. Besides those whose tuition is paid, many others attend the schools, who pay nothing. The School is held in the beautiful Sunday School room adjoining Christ Church, and is said to be well conducted.

The credit of starting and continuing this excellent charity is said to be solely due to the energy of a lady member of Dr. Mason's Parish.

SUTTEE.—It must be gratifying to any one with human sensibilities, to know that his efforts to do good to others are appreciated. Such evidence has been afforded by the ladies of the Raleigh Baptist Church toward their Pastor, Rev. T. H. Pritchard—manifested in a more tangible shape than mere words can testify, namely, by presenting him with a neat and comfortable suit of clothes—coat, pants and vest; not forgetting hat, boots and overcoat. We could proceed to show, on human, intellectual and moral grounds, that in consequence of this manifestation of good will on the part of his congregation, he can preach to them better than he could without it; but the philosophy of the question is too plain and strong to require elucidation.

NICE POTATOES.—We are indebted to our good friend, Bryant W. Green, Esq., for a lot of nice sweet potatoes, of the yam species, the finest and largest we have seen this year. We have been thinking how we should prepare them, and have finally concluded to have some of them baked and take them hot, with butter; some we intend to have put in the shape of "sliced potato pie;" some will be taken in the form of "potato pudding," and the remainder will serve to garnish a mess or two of roast beef; and we think they are excellent laid alongside the beef and cooked with it. In these different shapes we hope to be able to "worry through" the lot. Many thanks to you, Bryant, and may you live to see your children's children sitting beneath the roof-tree, with plenty of potatoes and everything else good and wholesome to go upon.

NOMINATION IN MECKLENBURG.—The Democratic Conservative Convention of Mecklenburg county, met in Charlotte on Tuesday, 14th inst., to nominate a candidate for the Senate from that county to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Hon. J. W. Osborne. Col. Thos. J. Grier presided and J. M. Hutchinson, Esq., acted as Secretary.

The townships of the county were well represented, and the utmost harmony characterised the proceedings. On the first ballot Col. H. C. Jones received a large majority of the votes cast, and before the result was announced from the Chair, the nomination was declared unanimous.

The nomination is a most excellent one and of course will result in the election of the gallant Colonel to the Senate.

A NEW BOOK.—We have received from the publishers, Sheldon & Co., New York, through Mr. J. A. Jones, Bookseller of this city, "Cipher, A Romance," by Jane G. Austin. We have only had time to glance through it, reading a paragraph, sometimes a page, here and there, and from this casual examination, we should pronounce it a very readable book. It has one characteristic we always like in light reading, namely, a great deal of dialogue. We like to hear the characters of a romance talk; in other words, we prefer conversational to descriptive writing.

The book is very neatly printed and embellished with wood cuts.

For sale by J. A. Jones, Fayetteville Street, near Pentress' corner.

STATE FAIR—SHOE MANUFACTURES.—We have long thought that North Carolina promises rare advantages for the manufacture of shoes on a large scale. In the first place we have immense forests of trees, suitable for tanning, and the leather can be made here as cheaply as in any part of the world. In the next place we have all requisites for cheap manufacturers—cheap labor—water power—mild and healthy climate—proximity to the localities where shoes, &c., will find a ready sale.

We are glad therefore to learn that Mr. Jas. A. Leach, of the firm of "James A. Leach & Co.", Wholesale Shoe Manufacturers at Thomasville, N. C., will, at the request of President Battle, read a paper before the Agricultural Society at the next Fair, on "The Advantages of North Carolina for the manufacture of Shoes, &c."—Such a paper will not only be interesting, but eminently instructive.

We learn that the North Carolina Agricultural Society, in connection with the Oakdale Cemetery Association, have taken for an office the front room of the second story of Holleman's new building, corner of Fayetteville street and Market Square.

It is proposed, on the part of the Agricultural Society, to have on hand, as soon as possible, reports of the various State Agricultural Societies, together with that of the leading journals of the country, all for the use and inspection of those who feel or have any interest in such matters.

We are also informed that the Cemetery Association will, very soon, exhibit at the same place a complete plan of the grounds of the new cemetery.

Let the people read the communication signed "James," in another column. It is pungent and pointed, and our correspondent has yet other matters to ventilate.

There is so much fraud and corruption in every branch and department of the State government that it is impossible that the Railroads should escape it. Come, James, with more of your facts and interrogatories.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15.—The Spanish organ at New York asserts that both Spanish and Cuban reports of fights near Los Tunos are fictions.

Mixed schools have been defeated here. The word "white," by a vote of 6 to 7, was retained in the District School regulations.

An enthusiastic annexation meeting was held at Quebec on Saturday.

Ex-Secretary Seward has returned safely from Alaska and will now visit the city of Mexico.

Three whites and twenty Indians were recently killed in Arizona, in a fight over a wagon train.

The London Times, in discussing affairs in Cuba, hopes that Spain will soon see that it is good to get rid of Cuba on any terms.

Madrid Journals assert that the Government recently sent a letter to the Great Powers of Europe, repeating the note from Gen. Sickles, the American Minister, on the subject of recognition of Cuba, and that replies favorable to the rights of Spain have been received from England, France and Austria.

Motley was not forbidden to entertain invitations to re-open the Alabama claims negotiations. Motley is now engaged in negotiating an important consular treaty.

Sickles was not authorized to make any demand upon the Spanish government; he was instructed merely to act discreetly, but with earnestness as a mediator between Spain and Cuba, on the basis already published, for the independence of the Island.

Leading members of the government, including the Regent, favor the proposition, but are not free to accept it.

FOREIGN.

LONDON, Sept. 15.—There was a large meeting of the Cotton Merchants, Spinners and Manufacturers at Manchester last evening for the purpose of considering the condition of trade in Lancaster. Speeches were made and resolutions adopted. One of the latter asserted that it was expedient to form an association to urge Parliament to grant an inquiry into causes of the depressed state of capital and labor. It was also resolved to hold a series of public meetings in the principal towns of England. For the want of reciprocity, the French treaty and the system of American imports and English exports were generally condemned.

THE UTLEY
COTTON PRESS.

A NEW combination of power, whereby all friction is overcome. The simplicity, economy and durability of this PRESS astonishes all who see it, and the query is, that a power so simple should so long have been unappropriated. With this Press, two men can do all the packing or pressing of a 500 pound bale inside of eight minutes; and it can be readily taken down and transported, as it is simple and light. We can supply these Presses cheaper than any yet offered to the Planter. Will send circulars to any desiring, and we would advise all persons wanting presses to withhold buying until they examine this.

THE PRESSES are now being manufactured at the SASH AND BLIND FACTORY OF THOS H. BRIGGS. All are assured that as between this and any other there is no argument as to its merits over all others. With three irons, any ordinary workman can put them up. The patentee is here for a few days, and will take pleasure in explaining its merits.

It has an IMPORTANT NEW FEATURE that has been copy-righted. According to this plan the rates are MUCH LOWER than in any other Company in the world.

Its ratio of Mortality is low. Its rates are very low. Its expenses are very low. Its dividends are large.

It insured more lives in the City of New York in 1868, than any other Company, except one. It issued more Policies in the United States than any other save one. It insured more lives in Canada than any other Company, British or American.

See what the HIGHEST INSURANCE AUTHORITY in this country says. In the June number of the Insurance Times, of New York, the following opinion was expressed:

"If there is any great benefit in mutual association, any great advantage to be derived from scientific organization and a chartered source, tending to mitigate the sufferings, lessen the privations, and add to the peace, security, and happiness of humanity, we are prepared to show that these blessings flow, in all their fullness and purity, from this excellent, powerful, and flourishing Company, the ÆTNA LIFE, of Hartford."

"No institution has brought more prompt, full, and grateful relief to the hearths of the bereaved and desolate, and none has been more uniformly distinguished for the enterprise, wisdom, and equitable liberality with which it has fulfilled the purposes of its formation."

"Its success has been almost unbounded and beyond all precedent. Eight years ago, in 1861, it issued only 538 policies, received an income of seventy-eight thousand dollars, and possessed net assets summing up to something over two hundred and eighty-one thousand dollars; but last year, 1868, it granted 13 237 new policies, more than any other Company, except the Mutual Life; received an income exceeding six million dollars and had amassed solid, accurely and profitably invested nett assets amounting to over Ten Million Three Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars. And this wonderful ratio of growth has been sustained in 1869."

The opening to commerce of the much talked of Suez Canal, which is to take place in November next, promises to revolutionize the course of commerce and to bring about vast changes in the relative wealth and importance of cities and nations. The magnitude and cost of the undertaking, great as they were, sink into insignificance when compared with the results to be accomplished. The whole trade of Europe with Asia that is now done by the route of the Cape of Good Hope, by land transfer across the Isthmus of Suez and overland from Russia, will henceforth seek the short and expeditious line of the Mediterranean and the Red Sea, connected by the Suez Ship Canal. This channel, which is in some respects a re-opening and enlargement of a like work that existed in the time of the Ptolemies, is about ninety miles in length and of a depth and breadth sufficient to permit the passage of vessels drawing twenty-five feet of water. Its cost is about a million dollars a mile, which includes the construction of seaports at either end of the line. The building of new vessels in England and France is being carried on with direct reference to the capacity of the Suez Canal. As a business speculation on the part of the company its success is beyond doubt or question, for even a moderate tonnage and passenger toll on the ships and steamers passing through will produce a revenue that, while paying a handsome dividend to the stockholders, will be sufficient before many years to reimburse the original outlay. The present volume of trade between Europe and Asia, will be vastly increased, so that the tonnage now engaged in it supplies no criterion on which to base estimates for the future, it appears remarkable indeed, not that this great undertaking has been entered on and completed in our day, but rather that preceding generations did not accomplish it. It has long been discussed and talked about, just as the connection of the Pacific and Atlantic oceans by way of the Isthmus of Darien has, ever since the discovery of America, been thought of and recognized as a kindred work of equal importance to the trade of the New World. Now that M. de Lesseps has demonstrated the practicability of carrying the one to a successful issue, we trust that it will act as an incitement to the capitalists who have undertaken to prosecute the other.

The first Napoleon used to say that the opening of the Suez Canal would do more than anything else to establish the empire of the Sultan on a secure basis. Whether it will have that effect now is rather questionable. Even if the tendency were not to make the Pachs of Egypt independent of the Porte, it would seem inevitable that Russia will now more than ever before covet possession of Constantinople and of the straits of the Dardanelles. So that, with this double menace to the Turkish empire, the Suez Canal is just as likely to be fatal as it is to be propitious to its existence.

The maritime supremacy of England, too, is rather apt to suffer diminution from this same cause. The countries washed by the Mediterranean are those that have the best chance of controlling the trade of Asia. Marseilles will be the great European seaport to which that trade will come, and from which it will be disseminated through Europe. Venice and Genoa will probably regain some of their former splendor and prosperity; and, in fact, all the ports of the Mediterranean will once again, after ages of dullness and decay, become active marts of commerce. No wonder that England turned a cold shoulder on M. de Lesseps and his project, and sought, by quiet diplomatic means to prevent its being realized, for it must be confessed that there is in the Suez Canal an element of danger to the commercial greatness of Liverpool and London. Even to the United States this great work is not without considerable interest. A few months ago the great Pacific Railroad was opened amid popular rejoicings, and the American people felicitated themselves that they had by this magnificent enterprise secured the trade of Asia. That is not now so very certain. Important as railroads are, they do not by any means lessen the value of water communications. There are certain distances to which the transportation by rail of bulky commodities, of wheat, flour, corn and other products, are limited by cost. Beyond those distances such products cannot be sent to market by rail, because the cost of transportation would exceed the price at which they could be sold. And so the importance of facilitating water transportation, whether by removing obstructions to navigation or by connecting navigable waters by means of canals, is just as great now as it would be if railroad transportation had never been thought of. We see that although New York has railroad connection with New Orleans there are three weekly lines of steamers trading between those ports. And so it is with Charleston, Mobile, Savannah, Wilmington, Boston, Albany, &c. We presume that with New York and San Francisco connected by rail the experience will be similar, and that land transportation will not diminish the trade by sea.

In view of all these facts it becomes incumbent on the United States, if they would strive to secure by sea those advantages which they now have by land, in grasping the bulk of the Asiatic trade to respond to the challenge contained in the opening of the Suez Canal, by commencing immediately and pushing forward to speedy completion the work of connecting the Atlantic and Pacific oceans by a ship canal. We have no doubt that with the right sort of men engaged in the movement the subscription books would be promptly filled, and if any trouble should arise about rights of way the government should step in, and, in the interest of all nations and peoples, take and keep and guard the extent of territory necessary for the great work. Even the London Court Journal, in a recent article on the subject, declared that our government would be fully justified in doing so. We cannot afford to sleep on this project. Speedy action has become a national necessity.—N. Y. Herald.

THE GREAT REPUTATION

Which KOSKOO has attained in all parts of the Country

AS A GREAT AND GOOD MEDICINE,

has induced Dr. Lawrence to ENLARGE HIS LABORATORY and FACILITIES for MANUFACTURING, so as to be enabled to supply the extraordinary demand for it.

THE LARGE NUMBER OF TESTIMONIALS which are constantly being received from Physicians, and persons WHO HAVE BEEN CURED by its use, is CONCLUSIVE PROOF of its REMARKABLE VALUE.

As a BLOOD PURIFIER, it HAS NO EQUAL,

BEING POSITIVELY THE

Most Powerful Vegetable Alterative

YET DISCOVERED!

DISEASES OF THE BLOOD.

"The life of the flesh is in the Blood," is a Scriptural maxim that science proves to be true. The people talk of bad blood, as the cause of many diseases, and like many popular opinions, this of bad blood is founded in truth. To say nothing of those humors that are hereditary, we can easily see how the Blood may become bad from imperfect Digestion or failure of excretion and how this may influence the process of Nutrition, and thus influence all the functional activities of the body.

The symptoms of bad blood are usually quite plain—bad Digestion—causes imperfect nutrition, and consequently the circulation is feeble, the soft tissues lose their tone and elasticity, and the tongue becomes pale, broad, and frequently covered with a pasty, white coat. This condition soon shows itself in roughness of the skin, then to ERUPTIVE and ULCERATIVE diseases, and when long continued results in serious lesions of the Brain, Liver, Lungs, or urinary apparatus. Much, very much, suffering is caused by impure blood. It is estimated by some that one-fifth of the human family are afflicted with scrofula in some form.

Persons suffering from any bad humor are very liable to have it settle on the Lungs or some other vital organ. The only safe rule is to remove the Blood poison at once, before it settles itself upon some vital point.

When the Blood is pure, you are not so liable to any disease. Many impurities of the Blood arise from impure diseases of large cities. Eradicate every impurity from the fountain of life, and good spirits, fair skin and vital strength will return to you.

KOSKOO!

AS A

LIVER INVIGORATOR!

STANDS UNRIVALLED.

BEING THE ONLY KNOWN MEDICINE that EFFECTUALLY stimulates and CORRECTS the hepatic secretions and FUNCTIONAL DERANGEMENTS of the LIVER, without debilitating the system. While it acts FREELY upon the Liver instead of CONSTIPATING, it gradually changes the discharges to a PERFECTLY NATURAL STATE.

SYMPTOMS OF LIVER COMPLAINT AND OF SOME OF THOSE DISEASES PRODUCED BY IT.

A sallow or yellow color of the skin, or yellowish-brown spots on the face and other parts of the body; dullness and drowsiness, sometimes headache; bitter or bad taste in the mouth, internal heat; in many cases a dry teasing cough; unsteady appetite; sometimes sour stomach, with a raising of the food; a bloated or full feeling about the stomach and sides; aggravating pains in the sides, back, or breast, and about the region of the; constipation of the bowels; piles, flatulence, coldness of the extremities, &c.

KOSKOO!

Is a remedy of WONDERFUL EFFICACY in the cure of diseases of the KIDNEYS and BLADDER. In these affections it is as near A SPECIFIC as ANY remedy can be. It does its work KINDLY, SILENTLY, and SURELY. The RELIEF which it affords is both CERTAIN and PERCEPTIBLE.

DISEASES OF THE KIDNEYS AND BLADDER.

Persons unacquainted with the structure and functions of the Kidneys cannot estimate the importance of their healthy action.

Regular and sufficient action of the Kidneys is as important, nay, even more so, than regularity of the bowels. The Kidneys remove from the Blood those effete matters which, if permitted to remain, would speedily destroy life. A total suspension of the urinary discharges will occasion death from thirty-six to forty-eight hours.

When the Urine is voided in small quantities at the time, or when there is a disposition to Urinate more frequently than natural, or when the Urine is high colored or scalding with weakness in the small of the back, it should not be trifled with or delayed, but Koskoo should be taken at once to remedy the difficulty, before a lesion of the organs takes place. Most of the diseases of the Bladder originate from those of the Kidneys, the urine being imperfectly secreted in kidneys, prove irritating to the Bladder and Urinary passages. When we recollect that medicine never reaches the Kidneys except through the general circulation of the Blood, we see how necessary it is to keep the Fountain of Life Pure.

KOSKOO!

MEETS WITH GREAT SUCCESS IN THE CURE OF

Almost nine-tenths of our people suffer from nervous exhaustion, and are, therefore, liable to its concomitant evils of mental depression, confused ideas, softening of the brain, insanity, and complete breaking down of the general health. Thousands are suffering to-day with broken-down nervous systems, and, unfortunately, tobacco, alcohol, late hours, over-work, [mental and physical] are causing diseases of the nervous system to increase at a fearful ratio.

The symptoms to which diseases of the nervous system give rise, may be stated as follows: A dull, heavy feeling in the head, sometimes more or less severe pain or headache; Periodical headache, Dizziness, Noises or ringing in the Head; Confusion of Ideas; Temporary Loss of Memory; Dejection of Spirits; Starting during Sleep; Bad Dreams; Hesitation in answering questions; Dulness of Hearing; Twitching of the Face and Arms, &c., which, if not promptly treated, lead to Paralysis, Delirium, Insanity, Impotency, Apoplexy, &c., &c.

CONCLUSION.

Suffering reader, do not think that because you have tried other remedies, you cannot be cured, but recollect that God, in His Providence, has not afflicted His children with pain and disease without at the same time giving them something in the Great Garden of Nature that will cure them.

Have no hesitation in writing to me, and stating your case in full, and I will answer you promptly.
